Electronic Information Privacy Notice

Your privacy is very important to Imagem. Imagem has put privacy protections in place to help you maintain control over your personal information while fostering the growth of a more interactive, engaging, and personalized web experience. Imagem works closely together with Hexagon Geospatial regarding Smart M.App's. Below are the guidelines we use for protecting any information you provide during a visit to our Website.

Consistent with our commitment to privacy, Hexagon Geospatial is a Division of Intergraph Corporation. Intergraph Corporation has self-certified to the United States Department of Commerce's Safe Harbor Program with respect to personal information transferred from the European Union. The Safe Harbor Principles in some cases may require Intergraph to handle EU personal information differently than described below.

To learn more about the Safe Harbor program, and to view Intergraph's certification, please visit <http://www.export.gov/safeharbor>.

Scope of This Notice

This Privacy Notice ("Notice") applies to all personal information collected online by Hexagon Geospatial. This Notice covers all Websites and domains of Hexagon Geospatial and its subsidiaries worldwide.

Collection and Use of Information

In general, you can visit Hexagon Geospatial's Website and access information while remaining anonymous and without revealing any personal information. When you enter our Website we can determine your domain name and what browser and operating system you are using, but we cannot determine any personal information about you. Hexagon Geospatial uses this information only to scale technical implementation to match our audience's browser capabilities.

When requesting information from us, or entering secure areas of our Website, we do require that you provide some information about yourself by "registering" or completing an online form. For example, situations where we will ask you to provide information include, but are not limited to:

- when requesting or purchasing software, license keys or printed materials;
- when requesting product information or other information from Hexagon Geospatial;
- when registering for a user forum or to attend an Hexagon Geospatial-sponsored event;
- when participating in contests or surveys;
- when registering an Hexagon Geospatial product you have purchased; and
- when entering a limited-access, premium portion of our Website, such as our customer support knowledge base, you must "register" to receive a username and password.

The information we require is necessary to fulfill your request and to provide you further information about our products, services and support.

We may ask additional questions about the primary business and size of your company, your professional role, or what products you currently use so that we can better tailor our Website and communications to your needs. Each online form will clearly specify which information is required and which is optional.

If you choose not to register and provide personal information, you can still use most of the Hexagon Geospatial Website. However, you will not be able to access areas or receive services that require registration.

Some third-party companies may choose to share their personal information with Hexagon Geospatial; that sharing is governed by that third-party company's privacy policy, not this Hexagon Geospatial Privacy Notice.

When We Disclose Your Information

Without your consent, Hexagon Geospatial will not share any personal information you provide online with any third party that is not an Hexagon Geospatial agent, distributor, business partner, or affiliate, except to the limited extent necessary to fulfill your request for products, services, or support. Hexagon Geospatial reserves the right, however, to disclose information as required by applicable law, in order to protect its rights or property, or in case Hexagon Geospatial or a portion of its assets is sold.

Access and Accuracy

Upon request, Hexagon Geospatial will provide you with reasonable access to your personal information collected online, and will make reasonable efforts to correct, amend or delete such information, as appropriate.

E-mail Communications

If you send us an e-mail with questions or comments, we may use your personally identifiable information to respond to your questions or comments, and we may save your questions or comments for future reference. For security reasons, we do not recommend you send non-public personally identifiable information, such as passwords, social security numbers, or bank account information to us by e-mail. Furthermore, we may send you e-mail under the following circumstances:

- if you request a particular service or sign up for a feature that involves e-mail communications;
- if it relates to purchases you have made with us (e.g., product updates, customer support, etc.);
- if we are sending you information about our other products and services;
- if you consented to being contacted by e-mail for a particular purpose;
- if you send us an e-mail, post information on the websites (i.e., a blog) or otherwise submit information to us electronically, we may e-mail you to follow-up or otherwise communicate with you with respect thereto;
- to provide you legal notices or notices with respect to your use of the websites; or

- to otherwise facilitate a transaction between us.

In certain instances, we may provide you with tools on the e-mails that will allow you to set your preferences for receiving e-mail communications from us; that is, agree to some communications, but not others. You may "opt out" of receiving future commercial e-mail communications from us by clicking the "unsubscribe" link or following the other instructions included at the bottom of the e-mails we send, provided, however, we reserve the right to send you transactional e-mails such as customer service communications.

Contact and Opt-out Information

E-mails will include a link to a subscription management tool that allows you to make changes regarding your preferences for receiving communications. Alternatively, you may contact us by using the "Contact Us" link on our website or by e-mailing us at privacy@intergraph.com or contact Imagem at info@imagem.nl. Please provide your name, country, and a method to contact you so we may appropriately respond to your request. You may also contact us if:

- a. you have questions or comments about our Privacy Policy;
- b. wish to make corrections to any personally identifiable information you have provided to us; or
- c. (want to opt-out from receiving future commercial correspondence, including e-mails, from us (we may continue to send you transactional messages such as responding to your inquiries).

We will respond to your request and, if applicable and appropriate, make the requested change in our active databases as soon as reasonably practicable. Note that we may not be able to fulfill certain requests while allowing you access to certain benefits and features of our websites.

Cookies

The Hexagon Geospatial Website presently employs cookies in several ways. First, we offer a cookie which serves as your identification card whenever you visit our site. When you first fill out an online form anywhere within the site, your acceptance of this cookie allows our site to "remember" the information you submitted (name, address, phone number, etc.). Whenever you return and fill out another form within our site, all your information is re-displayed for your convenience. You don't have to enter this information again, unless it has changed!

The Hexagon Geospatial Website also uses cookies to track your content preferences. Some sections of our site allow you to view content based on your interests. The first time you select your content preference, we offer you a cookie, which allows us to remember this preference. This means that you do not need to select the content type of every page you visit- we'll do that for you automatically.

You are always in control of what cookies, if any, you accept via settings within your browser. Your browser can also alert you whenever a Web server offers you a cookie.

Outside Links

The Hexagon Geospatial Websites may provide links to third-party websites for your convenience and information. If you access those links, you will leave the Hexagon Geospatial Website. Hexagon Geospatial does not control those sites or their privacy practices, which may differ from Hexagon Geospatial's. We encourage you to review the privacy policy of any company before submitting your personal information.
